The data controller decides on the way of processing the Card Holder's personal data. Personal data are processed in accordance with the regulations on personal data protection, in particular in accordance with the GDPR and the Act of 10 May 2018 on personal data protection. The basis for data processing is:

Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR - in relation to the activities necessary to perform the contract under these Terms and Conditions,

Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR - in connection with the need to comply with the legal obligation imposed on Conotoxia under the Payment Services Act and the AML Act,

Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR - in relation to the legitimate interest of the controller, namely the prevention of fraud.

2. More information about the personal data processing rules, including the rules of using cookies, is described in the Conotoxi.com Web Portal's Privacy Policy available here.
3. Conotoxia has appointed a Data Protection Officer, who can be contacted by email: dpo@conotoxia.com or in the traditional form by sending a letter to the address of the controller's registered office with the reference "Data Protection Officer".
4. The recipients of the data are Payment Organisations, entities responsible for the physical preparation of the Card, entities responsible for proper authentication during the execution of transactions, banks, recipients of the amount of the payment transaction and state authorities entitled to access personal data under the law, as well as Conotoxia.com, responsible for maintaining the Service on the Conotoxia.com Web Portal.
5. The provision of data is voluntary but is necessary for Conotoxia to provide services. The Card Holder has the right to access, rectify, port, restrict or erase their personal data and to object to the processing, subject to paragraph 9.
6. Conotoxia is entitled to refuse to erase the Card Holder's personal data if further processing of these data by the controller is required by law, as well as in the event of a breach by the Card Holder of the law of the Payment Cards Terms and Conditions or the Payment Services Terms and Conditions „Money Transfer" to the extent necessary to document, explain and determine the persons responsible for the breach identified.

purposes the fact of obtaining and the content of such messages. The Card Holder has the right to object to such processing.

8. Data will be processed for the period necessary for the provision of services, and thereafter for the period required by law.
9. As part of the evaluation of the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing under the AML Act, the Card Holder's personal data will be subject to profiling in order to identify possible cases of money laundering or terrorist financing in accordance with the aforementioned Act. Such profiling will take into account, inter alia, transaction data, nationality, customer type, type of business relationship, geographical area, as well as prior high-risk activity. As a result of such profiling, potentially illegal activities in the area of money laundering or terrorist financing are identified. The result of any reasonable suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing is that such transaction may be reported to the relevant government authorities or may be rejected. Such determination may also result in a refusal to conclude an agreement with the Card Holder in the future.
10. Conotoxia has entrusted the processing of personal data to the entity responsible for preparing the Cards, whose seat is located in a third country, the Isle of Man. Personal data will be transferred to the Isle of Man on the basis of a positive decision of the European Commission, stating the appropriate level of protection.  - a. Card Holder has the right to terminate Contract with immediate effect without any additional fees before the proposed amendments come into force.
 - b. In the case when Card Holder expresses an objection but does not terminate Contract, Contract expires on the day preceding the date of entry into force of the proposed amendments, without any fees.
